Paul Describes Genuine Love

1 Corinthians 13:1-13

Instructions: Pour red tempera paint into a shallow container. Have your child put on a smock or an old shirt, and encourage your child to dip his or her palms into the paint. Then have your child make handprints on the paper to fill in the heart outline. Talk about ways that we can use our hands to show love to others, such as by giving another person a pat on the back or by helping with chores. (For additional classroom instructions, see the Teacher Guide.)

Sit facing your child. Clap your hands, and then clap your palms with your child's palms as you say this rhyme together.

I use my hands to show I'm kind.
I hug and help and try to find
All kinds of ways to show I'm kind.
Just remember: Love is kind.

ASK 🌀 How can we use our hands to show love to others?

🌀 Who can we help and show that love is kind?

What I Learned Today...

Bible Story: This week's Bible lesson (1 Corinthians 13:1-13) tells us that love is kind. Paul also tells us that love is patient, it's not boastful or proud, and it's not rude or self-seeking. Love is not easily angered, and it delights in what is right. Love goes on forever. Your child learned that even though it's not always easy to be patient and kind, he or she can ask God for help in being kind to others.

Key Verse: "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved" (Acts 16:31a).

Help your child make biscuits to show love for other family members. Open a can of refrigerator biscuits, and have your child flatten the biscuits slightly so that they can be cut with a heart-shaped cookie cutter. Bake the biscuits according to the package directions. Then thank God for the treats, and serve the biscuits with strawberry jam and cream cheese.

ASK 🌀 How does a heart remind us of love?

🌀 Who can you show your love to today?
